5,000 Men Out in New York.

Last night a big mass meeting of labor unions was held at Union Square.

It was estimated that 13,000 persons were present when the speaking began.

As early as 7 o'clock the various labor organizations began making their appearance and in an hour's time the square was crowded. The organizations represented comprised cigarmakers, bakers, waiters, confectioners, held under the direction of the socialistie labor party and the central labor feder-

L. Samuel, editor of The People, ealled the meeting to order shortly after 6 o'clock and delivered a brief address in favor of unions and the eight-hour day. Other speakers followed in the same strain and then a set of resolutions, demanding a reduction of the present working hours to eight; exending sympathy to the striking coal miners in Penusylvania and urging all wage-workers to rally under the banner of the socialistic labor party, was
